

Sibling abuse is a growing concern in the UK, so why do we so rarely hear about it?

Firecracker Films are researching abusive sibling relationships among young people in the UK for a potential documentary and we are really interested in hearing from anyone who has a personal experience of this.

If you or someone close to you has suffered any kind of abuse from a sibling, and would like to tell your story, please think about contacting us.

All conversations that take place will be completely confidential with no obligation whatsoever to take part in any filming.
